TRAINING, RESEARCH, UPDATES & PROTOCOLS

The Illinois Law Enforcement Training & Standards Board (ILETSB) has established mandated training requirements for Illinois Peace officers. Such training equates to 30 hours within a three-year period. Calibre Press, with over 40 years of state-of-the-art, up-to-date researched training has created a specially designed 16-hour course that specifically addresses most of the subject matters -required by the ILETSB.

The required subjects addressed in our two-day course include, but are not limited to, the following:

Topics we'll cover include:

- 6 hours of instruction on use of force techniques including the use of de-escalation techniques designed to prevent or reduce the need for force whenever safe and feasible
- 6 hours of training focused on traffic stops, including high-risk stops, as well as:
 - The law concerning stops & searches
 - Laws regulating the use of force under the 4th Amendment of the US Constitution
 - The Graham Standard
 - LE Policies & Procedures
 - The Illinois SAFE-T Act
- Safety Techniques & Considerations
 - Time
 - Cover & Concealment
 - Distance
 - Communication
- Acute Stress: How the mind and body reacts during such experiences
- Tactics & Techniques for Patrol Officers
 - Approach to People
 - Approach to Vehicles
 - Approach to Buildings
